

Zoning Board of Appeal
Regular monthly meeting
July 11, 2011

Present: Chairman JM Cougevan, VC Tony Cannizaro, Marty Gibson, Patrick Hoke, Chris Hansen

Others: Linda Lefko, Betty Daggett

Agenda: Discuss and act upon the application requested for Special Use Permit of Jeff Smith Serenity Vineyards, 930 Davy Rd. for a small farm winery & tasting room.

Chairman Cougevan called the meeting to order at 7:50 PM following the public hearing.

The town planning board recommended approval of Mr. Smith's application with the stipulation that question # 11 be completed on the SEQRA.

The clerk handed him his original SEQRA form submitted, he reviewed it and corrected with checking "NO" as he has presently no license or permits for the winery from the Town of Torrey, he then initialed his correction in front of the board and resubmitted.

Motion by Mr. Cannizzaro, 2nd by Mr. Hansen to accept the application as completed for review and decision, carried by all. 5 Ayes 0 Nays

Chairman read the SEQRA short form to the Board.

Each item was read and negative decision was determined.

Motion by Tony, 2nd by Pat that the application is a Type II action and will not have a significant adverse impact on the environment therefore no further action is needed, with negative findings determined, carried by all. 5 Ayes 0 Nays

After a brief discussion Mr. Cougevan introduced the following resolution 2nd by Mr. Cannizzaro,
